HIGHLIGHTS & DESCRIPTION

Feral goat package

Overview

If you dream of experiencing an exciting hunt on wild goats in beautiful terrain, then the hunting areas Bonastar (on the island of Molat and Tramerka) are definitely worth a visit. We offer here a unique opportunity for hunting wild goats and wild boar on these islands, which are located in the Adriatic Sea. The hunt takes place by boat along the coast and as stalking 1:1 around the islands. The population of wild goats on the two islands is very strong and here it is possible to shoot more than one wild goat. The package also includes 3 female goats and a wild boar.

The islands make up an area of approx. 500 hectares and has a rocky coastline, a very dense vegetation and bare mountain tops, which is perfect biotope for the wild goats and wild boars. The hunt is incredibly exciting. There is hunting season for wild goats all year round, but April-October is the most optimal period due to the weather. It is possible to rent rifle and thermal night equipment, which increases the chances of shooting wild boars. Croatia is home to a healthy population of wild boar and there is the possibility of culling quite a bit on the 3 day hunt. It is hunting season for wild boar all year round, but October-March is the best period.

Hunting season:

Feral goat and wild boar: All year

Accommodation

Hunting lodge with double room or alt. single room depending on the size of the group.

A typical hunting day when the weather permits hunting from a boat along the coast:

Departure early morning 1-1½ hours before sunrise, and home again approx. 10:00. There is a rest in the middle of the day and a big lunch before departure on the evening hunt. Departure 2 hours before sunset if the weather permits hunting goats by boat along the coast and back home approx. 1½ hours after sunset.

Departure 1½ hours before sunset if hunting wild boar, which can be done throughout the night

A typical hunting day when the weather does not permit hunting from a boat along the coast:

HUNTING AREA Molat/Bonastar

The hunting ground "Bonastar" is part of the island of Molat as well as three smaller, independent islands "Tramerka", which together have a hunting area of approx. 500 ha. The biotope on the two islands creates an ideal habitat for wild goats and offers hunters an exciting and authentic hunting experience. When the weather permits, you sail along the coast in the morning and possibly evening to "spot" the goats that go down to drink sea water, and when the goats have been spotted the hunter and guide go on land to stalk along the coast. If the weather does not permit this form of hunting, then you search around the peninsula "Bonastar" to find the goats, which typically stay up on the mountain tops in the middle of the day. The islands are located in the Adriatic Sea off the city of Zadar and has a good population of fallow deer, wild goats and wild boar.

About us

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours Limpopo Travel and Diana Hunting Tours – which today are one and the same company - are built on more than four decades of experience in the hunting travel industry. Diana Hunting tours was founded in Svendborg back in 1974 by the internationally known figure in the hunting tour industry, Jan Krossteig, who today remains shareholder and chairman of the concern.

Over the years the company has grown into the world's largest hunting travel office, with hunting partners in more than 40 countries and customers from around the world. This has only been possible because of the strength of our customers faith in our company, our partners and the service we provide. We take great pride in the fact that a significant number of our customers are "regulars" you not only travel with us frequently, but also bring with them new customers into our business.

The hunting travel market has never been as chaotic as it is at present. There have always been a mass of small and medium sized agencies trading on the market, but in recent years the rise of the internet has really opened up the market for direct booking and packages sold by "agents" of more or less transparent character and by agencies based abroad.

A large number of hunters have had their fingers burnt booking "cheap" packages, which rarely proceed as promised. Generally it is only when things go wrong that the unfortunate hunter who bought the tour first realises what the difference between a good Danish travel agency - with all the security that entails - and a questionable foreign seller, really is.

What we offer our customers is a rather unique level of security. Our experienced staff really know our destinations and can provide highly qualified advice tailored to the customer's individual requirements. If you book your hunting tour through us you also have a guarantee against the unlikely event of bankruptcy through the Danish Travel Guarantee Fund. Our long standing membership of the Danish Travel Agency Association is also a guarantee for professional service throughout all the proceedings that a hunting tour entails - also in the event of something not going quite as planned. As one of our customers you can expect around the clock support, via our emergency hotline, in the event of anything at all going wrong.
