HIGHLIGHTS & DESCRIPTION

Unique combination hunt in Nuuk for king e...

Overview

It is with great pleasure that we can now offer you a unique combs-hunt near Nuuk. It is possible to hunt King Eider, common eider, artic hare, ptarmigan, seal, artic fox, and reindeer. Wind and weather may play a part in deciding what you can hunt during your 3 hunting days, so we cannot guarantee you will be able to hunt for all 7 species.

Dates and climate

Winter hunts take place in March. Arrival is on a Monday, departure on a Friday. It is also possible to extent your stay to give you the chance to do some sightseeing. When hunting during March you will typically experience cold arctic weather, with average temperatures around  $-7^{\circ}\text{C}$ . Snow covers the landscape, and the days are gradually getting longer, giving you around 11 -12 hours of daylight. This creates the perfect conditions for a unique hunting experience in the Arctic winter landscape, on which you can enjoy some varied hunting and experience the breathtaking Arctic nature.

Accommodation

On arrival in Nuuk you will be met at the airport and driven to the Hotel Aurora, where you will sleep throughout your entire stay. The Hotel Aurora has a city centre location, offers comfortable rooms and is close to many local attractions.

The hotel is your "base camp" when you are not out hunting. A hunting day involve getting up and eating breakfast, being picked up by your guide to go out hunting, returning to the hotel in the evening, eat dinner, then enjoy the rest of the evening. Best of all is that you can do it all again the next day.

Itinerary

- Day 1: Arrival in Nuuk
- Day 2,3 and 4: Hunting
- Day 5: departure for home

Travel

Hunters travel to Greenland by flying from Copenhagen to Kangerlussuaq. The flight time is 4 hours and 40 minutes. As there is a 3 hour time difference, you land circa 1 hour 45 minutes later than you leave Denmark. From Kangerlussuaq you fly further to Nuuk (Godthåb) on a domestic flight.

The Hunting

Hunting in Greenland is a very different experience to hunting in Europe, and even more so than hunting in Africa and other major destinations. The landscapes are wild and largely untouched. Here it is the wind, weather and animals that decide, we are simply guests. In the areas where the hunt takes place there is virtually no infrastructure, which places great demands on safety equipment on communication devices.

Hunting for ptarmigan, arctic hare and arctic fox is an unique experience in the arctic terrain. On the fells around Nuuk you can challenge yourself with spot and stalk hunting for ptarmigan, arctic hare and arctic fox. You must be able to use your eyes well, at this time of year all 3 species are snow white and can be very hard to spot. However, you will naturally be in good hands and your experienced hunting guides have been hunting these arctic species for many years.

The hunt for King eider and common eider duck takes place from a boat, giving you both a wonderful outdoors and hunting adventure. Using the boat as your base, you can navigate through the Arctic waters and spot the majestic King and common eiders, which usually gather together in the same large flocks. Once a flock has been spotted, you try to push them towards land, so they are forced to fly over the boat. This provides some fantastic shooting and is a completely different type of hunt than you will experience on land. This type of hunting also offers a great opportunity to enjoy the impressive coastal scenery around Nuuk.

Seal hunting will usually take place from the boat, but hunting from a hunting sledge with a hunting sail can also be carried out if the wind and weather permit. This is a hugely exciting form of hunting, that will present you with a real challenge. This is the type of seal hunts you may be familiar with from the television.

Reindeer hunting is carried out as spot and stalk in very open terrain, so you must expect to have to shoot at slightly longer range than you might be used to. Therefore it is a good idea to train shooting at a range of 200 - 250m before departure, if possible. It will not be possible to shoot trophy bearing animals, as they have shed their antlers at this time of the year, and they are slowly regrowing again.

This fantastic winter comb-hunt offers the chance to enjoy a wide range of different hunts, which can be combined on a single trip. You will experience unusual methods of hunting for unique Greenland game species, making it a really memorable hunting adventure in Greenland's capital of Nuuk.

About us

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours Limpopo Travel and Diana Hunting Tours – which today are one and the same company - are built on more than four decades of experience in the hunting travel industry. Diana Hunting tours was founded in Svendborg back in 1974 by the internationally known figure in the hunting tour industry, Jan Krössteig, who today remains shareholder and chairman of the concern.

Over the years the company has grown into the world's largest hunting travel office, with hunting partners in more than 40 counties and customers from around the world. This has only been possible because of the strength of our customers faith in our company, our partners and the service we provide. We take great pride in the fact that a significant number of our customers are "regulars" you not only travel with us frequently, but also bring with then new customers into our business.

The hunting travel market has never been as chaotic as it is at present. There have always been a mass of smalland medium sized agencies trading on the market, but in recent years the rise of the internet has really opened up the market for direct booking and packages sold by "agents" of more or less transparent character and by agencies based abroad.

A large number of hunters have had their fingers burnt booking "cheap" packages, which rarely proceed as promised, Generally it is only when things go wrong that the unfortunate hunter who bought the tour first realises what the difference between a good Danish travel agency - with all the security that entails -and a questionable foreign seller, really is.

What we offer our customers is a rather unique level of security. Our experienced staff really know our destinations and can provide highly qualified advice tailored to the customer's individual requirements. If you book your hunting tour through us you also have a guarantee against the unlikely event of bankruptcy through the Danish Travel Guarantee Fund. Our long standing membership of the Danish Travel Agency Association is also a guarantee for professional service throughout all the proceedings that a hunting tour entails - also in the event of something not going quite as planned. As one of our customers you can expect around the clock support, via our emergency hotline, in the event of anything at all going wrong.
