ACCOMMODATION

Estancia Cortaderas

When it comes to wing shooting and fishing lodges Estancia Cortaderas is one of the best in the world. The lodge is located north of Buenos Aires in the province of Entre Rios. The style of the lodge is old colonial style which recalls a bygone era yet has all the modern features of a small luxury hotel.

Estancia Cortaderas has earned a reputation as the finest hunting and fishing destination in South America. Entering the Estancia lodge you will be going through the spacious gun room. Here you will find a gun rack and storage area for every hunter. All rooms are equipped with two queen size beds, air condition, heating, private bath and patio with a fine view.

Dinner is served on fine china and linen tablecloth in the lodge's dining room. There will always be featured a three course gourmet meal. Argentines eat dinner quite a bit later than Europeans are used to, allowing for a lengthy cocktail and social time before dining. The grass fed beef which is served is among the finest quality in the world and is complemented by an array of classic continental game dishes. The gourmet chef can cook a number of argentinian specialties.

ACCOMMODATION Malalcue Lodge

Malalcue Lodge is the outfitter's northern lodge and is located near the town of Esquina, in the Corrientes region and overlooking the Corriente River, which flows into the Parana River just a short distance away. This beautiful lodge with 6 rooms and 5 bathrooms offers the perfect setting for the hunter. With a traditional Argentinian construction and thatched roof, this former resort was renovated and equipped to receive hunters from all over the world and from the lodge several different hunting and fishing opportunities are offered, such as big game hunting, duck hunting, partridge hunting and dorado fishing in the river.

with local Argentinian wines.

The day at Malalcue Lodge starts with a big homemade breakfast, after which you are transported to the hunting area, where the guides have prepared everything for the hunters. Depending on the hunt, lunch is served in the field or back at the lodge.

At Malalcue Lodge, there is no exception when it comes to the meals and typical Argentinian barbecue dishes are most often served. In the evening, you can relax in front of the fireplace with a drink before dinner is served and it is not unusual for the chef to serve meat from the game you have shot on the hunt, together

HUNTING AREA

Mixed bag in Entre Rios

The local population of pigeons has exploded in recent years in Entre Rios province due to increased agricultural production in the area. The area has wet, green fields which are increasingly being converted to soya, maize and sorghum production. This has attracted an unusually high number of pigeons.

At the same time, there are also some excellent opportunities for duck hunting in the large wetlands of the region and along the Parana River. There are many different duck species that can be hunted, which makes the hunt very special - In Argentina there are quotas on duck hunts and it is therefore only allowed to shoot 20-25 ducks per hunter/day. In addition to pigeon and duck hunting, partridge hunts are also offered with pointing dogs.

In addition to wingshooting, big game hunting is also offered on some of the local farms in the Corrientes area. The hunt takes place on free range and the typical species are the Blackbuck antelope, Axis deer and wild boar. In addition, there is also a good population of South American water buffalo, which are also huntable.

The Parana River offers the world's best freshwater fishing after the "Golden Dorado", which really offers some entertaining fishing. There is fishing from the bank or from boats along the Parana river and it is possible to fly or spin fish according to taste and preference.

The season starts in May and ends in August.

About us

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours Limpopo Travel and Diana Hunting Tours – which today are one and the same company - are built on more than four decades of experience in the hunting travel industry. Diana Hunting tours was founded in Svendborg back in 1974 by the internationally known figure in the hunting tour industry, Jan Krössteig, who today remains shareholder and chairman of the concern.

Over the years the company has grown into the world's largest hunting travel office, with hunting partners in more than 40 counties and customers from around the world. This has only been possible because of the strength of our customers faith in our company, our partners and the service we provide. We take great pride in the fact that a significant number of our customers are "regulars" you not only travel with us frequently, but also bring with them new customers into our business.

The hunting travel market has never been as chaotic as it is at present. There have always been a mass of small and medium sized agencies trading on the market, but in recent years the rise of the internet has really opened up the market for direct booking and packages sold by "agents" of more or less transparent character and by agencies based abroad.

A large number of hunters have had their fingers burnt booking "cheap" packages, which rarely proceed as promised. Generally it is only when things go wrong that the unfortunate hunter who bought the tour first realises what the difference between a good Danish travel agency - with all the security that entails - and a questionable foreign seller, really is.

What we offer our customers is a rather unique level of security. Our experienced staff really know our destinations and can provide highly qualified advice tailored to the customer's individual requirements. If you book your hunting tour through us you also have a guarantee against the unlikely event of bankruptcy through the Danish Travel Guarantee Fund. Our long standing membership of the Danish Travel Agency Association is also a guarantee for professional service throughout all the proceedings that a hunting tour entails - also in the event of something not going quite as planned. As one of our customers you can expect around the clock support, via our emergency hotline, in the event of anything at all going wrong.
