

A large set of brown, velvet-covered antlers from a red stag is the central focus, resting on a bed of dry straw in a field of purple heather. In the background, a green utility vehicle is parked on a grassy slope under a blue sky with light clouds.

Upon arrival on the estate you will be met by your stalker, usually around 09:00 in the morning. You will be asked to shoot at a target to ensure that you comfortable with your rifle and that the rifle is accurate, targets are positioned usually at a distance of 100 metres.

Upon commencement of the hunt you will be accompanied at all times by an experienced stalker and occasionally a ghille. Your stalker will know where to locate your deer depending on wind direction and prevailing conditions.

When the deer are located the herd will consist of between 10 and 100 red deer, at this point your stalker will select a stag that, in his opinion, is suitable to be culled. At this point you and your stalker begin your final approach, this will usually involve crawling on the ground in order to avoid detection by the stag.

Once you have reached a suitable distance from the group the selected stag will be described to you. When the target is standing correctly a shot can be taken.

After a successful shot has been taken your stag will be collected by either an all terrain vehicle or Highland Pony.

Normally the hunt will be 2:1 meaning that 2 hunters will share 1 stalker. Both of the hunters will follow the stalker and often you stalk together until a herd of red deer is seen and hereafter it is the stalker and the hunter who stalks alone the last way. By doing it this way both hunters will participate in each others stalking and experiences.

If you are only 1 hunter you will get your own stalker and hunt 1:1, upon a extra fee.

It will also be possible to combine the hunting with some fishing our tourism based on your wishes.

ACCOMMODATION Bed & breakfast or hotel

In the area you either stay at guesthouses (B&B) with the classic scottish atmosphere or cosy hunting lodges in the beautiful nature. The lodges are of high standard and a chef can be arranged to do the cooking. You can also choose a more moderate hunting cabin and cook for yourself.

At the hotels in Scotland you can always get classic scotch cooking and cosy atmosphere, and many of the places are really historical. If you choose the classic scotch breakfast table, you won't be hungry again until the afternoon. Nearly all hotels have wife.

All options of accommodation are close to the hunting areas.

PARTNER
Kingussie

Our partner in this area is an extremely experienced gamekeeper. He owns the hunting rights on many of the best scottish estates in the highlands, and on the west coast and north of Inverness. The success rate is very high and all hunters get to experience hunting in beautiful nature with a vast population of red deer.

Normally our partner will meet and greet our hunters, and give instructions on the hunting. Our partner will offer to help you with shipping of trophies - and you agree everything directly with our partner.

Transport of Trophies

Some of the areas arrange transport of your trophy in agreement with you after the hunt. We are also offering home transport of trophies from the United Kingdom in cooperation with an experienced Danish freight forwarder who handles all customs documentation, import permits, and veterinary inspections. Following Brexit, it is no longer possible to bring trophies home via airplane or general vehicle transport, as these items must go through customs and be properly declared. Failure to comply may result in the confiscation and destruction of the trophies.

The cost for transporting trophies home depends on their size and quantity – typically between EUR 150 and 250 per item.

Wounded and Missed Game

For wounded but not found game, as well as missed shots on clear opportunities, most estates charge the full price for the stag.

Exchange Rate

The price for this trip is an estimate, as we reserve the right to adjust for exchange rate fluctuations at the final settlement of the trip.

Firearm Permit

To hunt with a personal firearm in England and Scotland, hunters must hold a Firearm Certificate (Scottish/English firearm permit). This permit costs DKK 750, and the hunter must carry the Firearm Certificate throughout the entire stay. Along with the confirmation, we will send you a questionnaire, which we ask you to complete and return to us. We require this information to apply for the firearm permit on your behalf. Additionally, we ask for a clear copy of your EU Firearms Pass, including all pages, even blank ones. These documents must reach us no later than 2½ months prior to departure. If we do not receive them in time, we cannot guarantee that you will receive your Firearm Certificate before your departure.

About us

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours Limpopo Travel and Diana Hunting Tours – which today are one and the same company - are built on more than four decades of experience in the hunting travel industry. Diana Hunting tours was founded in Svendborg back in 1974 by the internationally known figure in the hunting tour industry, Jan Krossteig, who today remains shareholder and chairman of the concern.

Over the years the company has grown into the world's largest hunting travel office, with hunting partners in more than 40 countries and customers from around the world. This has only been possible because of the strength of our customers faith in our company, our partners and the service we provide. We take great pride in the fact that a significant number of our customers are "regulars" you not only travel with us frequently, but also bring with them new customers into our business.

The hunting travel market has never been as chaotic as it is at present. There have always been a mass of small and medium sized agencies trading on the market, but in recent years the rise of the internet has really opened up the market for direct booking and packages sold by "agents" of more or less transparent character and by agencies based abroad.

A large number of hunters have had their fingers burnt booking "cheap" packages, which rarely proceed as promised. Generally it is only when things go wrong that the unfortunate hunter who bought the tour first realises what the difference between a good Danish travel agency - with all the security that entails - and a questionable foreign seller, really is.

What we offer our customers is a rather unique level of security. Our experienced staff really know our destinations and can provide highly qualified advice tailored to the customer's individual requirements. If you book your hunting tour through us you also have a guarantee against the unlikely event of bankruptcy through the Danish Travel Guarantee Fund. Our long standing membership of the Danish Travel Agency Association is also a guarantee for professional service throughout all the proceedings that a hunting tour entails - also in the event of something not going quite as planned. As one of our customers you can expect around the clock support, via our emergency hotline, in the event of anything at all going wrong.
