

ROEBUCK HUNT IN FRANCE

During several years we have now had many hunters on our French roebuck districts and the results are very satisfactory. Everyone reports a dense population of old bucks, strong trophies and good hunting organization. In this area, many strong bucks are taken every year also in in the medal class, some of which are gold medal bucks. These aspects in combination with a beautiful countryside, excellent accommodations and great food and wine make for a perfect hunting holiday.

HIGHLIGHTS & DESCRIPTION

Roebuck Hunt in France

Overview

The district lies in a beautiful, fertile and very varied landscape, with rolling hills, forest, meadows and some arable crops. The district is a 1.5 hour drive south east of Toulouse. Roebuck hunting pressure is very limited, and there is a good chance of shooting a large, mature buck.

In addition to the roebuck hunting the Haute Garonne is also a very interesting part of France. It is the "narrowest" part of the country, with only 200km separating the Atlantic Ocean from the Mediterranean Sea. There are many fascinating historic towns and castles, including Toulouse, the famous pilgrimage destination Lourdes and Pau. The tiny country of Andorra is also close by. The local cuisine and wine are worth the journey alone. All of this makes the destination also very attractive for the non-hunting members of the family.

It is possible to rent a rifle from our French partner. He offers, among other things, Blaser R8 prof. success in caliber 30.06 with a quality binocular from Zeiss. If you want to bring your own rifle, you must be aware that our partner requires you to shoot with a silencer.

The Hunt

The optimal period to hunt roebuck here is in June, July and up to 10th August, however in September it is possible to combine a roebuck hunt with hunting for red stag, or on another district, for chamois. This second district is around a drive of 1.5 hours

HIGHLIGHTS

- Highly satisfactory results
- Dense population of mature bucks, good trophies and well organised hunting
- Beautiful, fertile and varied terrain, with gently sloping hills, woodland, meadows and some farmland.
- Every year many good bucks of a medal winning standard - including a number of gold - are shot here away.

It is possible for 3 - 6 hunters to hunt here at the same time, and you can choose to hunt 1:1 or 2:1. The hunt is a mix of lying in wait and stalking. The French hunting guides are very experienced, but you should not expect them to speak any language other than French. But as in so many other hunting destinations, you will find that hunters have their own special international "language". The outfitter speaks good English, and he will also guide most of our hunters.

During the hunt you will stay in a small hotel/guesthouse close to the hunting district.

The easiest way to get here is to fly to Toulouse. From there you can either take a rental car or we can arrange transfers to the hunting district. We can naturally help with arranging flights.

If you would like to spend a few more days in this part of France, or perhaps bring along the family, we would recommend that you hire a car.

ACCOMMODATION

Accommodation - Gers, France

During your hunt you will stay in a small hotel/guest house close to the hunting district. We use various accommodations, but generally, they are very charming, often set in old historical houses, but with the necessary facilities such as rooms with private bathrooms and toilets, common areas, Wi-Fi, and some also have swimming pools. Do not expect to loose weight here. Normally you will enjoy a light breakfast early in the morning before going out hunting, then when you return you will be served a delicious brunch. Of course there is also a wonderful dinner, with taste French specialities and a good glass of wine.

On top of the hunting, this region of France is also very interesting. Here where the country is at it narrowest, it is only around 200 km to both the Atlantic Ocean and the Mediterranean Sea. There are many exciting historic towns and chateaux, for example Toulouse, the famous town of Lourdes and Pau, while the tiny country of Andorra is also close by. The wonderful food and wine of the region is well worth the trip by itself. All in all, it is a very attractive destination for the non-hunting part of the family.

The easiest way to get here is to fly to either Toulouse or Pau, and the hunt manager can arrange for you to be collected at the airport in Toulouse and transferred to the hunting district. Naturally we would be happy to help you book flights.

If you would like to spend a few extra days in this part of France, and possibly bring your family along, then we would recommend that you hire a car.

PARTNER Julien

Our partner, Julien, is both an outfitter and professional hunter, who has been carefully building up his successful company over a number of years. We have enjoyed an excellent working relationship with Julien since 2012, and he has really taken great care of our hunters, giving them some great hunting experiences and some fine trophies.

Julien offers roebuck hunting during the summer, while during the autumn and winter he concentrates on hunting chamois, mouflon and red deer.

Together with his skilled hunting guides, he takes care of all aspects of your hunt and accommodation here. He makes sure you will stay as close to the hunting district you will hunt in as possible, that all the licenses and paperwork are taken care of, and that your trophies will get the best possible treatment.

HUNTING AREA

Gers & Pyrenees Atlantique

The two roe deer districts are respectively in the Gers region, close to the town of Auch, and in the Pyrenees Atlantique, where the regional center is Pau. From Toulouse it's around a 1½ hour drive to Auch, while the districts close to Pau are circa a 3-3½ hour drive from Toulouse. It's also possible to fly to Pau, from where it's about an hours drive from the hunting district. Our partner has more than 60,000 hectares of hunting. The terrain is extremely beautiful, fertile and varied. It is relatively mountainous with "gentle hills", woodlands, plenty of hedgerows, small copses, grassy meadows, steep, narrow ravines, and farmland growing a wide range of crops including wheat, sunflowers, maize, pasture and more. It provides one of the best reedier habitats that we have come across. Hunting pressure is limited, and there is a great chance of shooting a very good mature buck.

During the years that we've been offering roebuck hunts here, medal winning bucks have been shot annually, including a number of gold medal standard.

The best period to hunt roebuck is in June, July and up to 10th August. However in September it is possible to combine a roebuck hunt here with hunting for red deer, or for chamois in a different district.

A maximum of 3-4 hunters can hunt here at the same time, and you can choose between hunting 1:1 or 2:1. If you choose 1:1 guiding a maximum of 2-3 can hunt the same district simultaneously. The hunt is a blend of lying in wait and stalking, with stalking being the predominant form of hunting.

The French hunting guides are very experienced, but please don't expect them to anything other than French, but as everywhere else, hunting has it's own universal "language". The hunt manager and most of his permanent staff do speak good English however.

About us

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours Limpopo Travel and Diana Hunting Tours – which today are one and the same company - are built on more than four decades of experience in the hunting travel industry. Diana Hunting tours was founded in Svendborg back in 1974 by the internationally known figure in the hunting tour industry, Jan Krossteig, who today remains shareholder and chairman of the concern.

Over the years the company has grown into the world's largest hunting travel office, with hunting partners in more than 40 countries and customers from around the world. This has only been possible because of the strength of our customers faith in our company, our partners and the service we provide. We take great pride in the fact that a significant number of our customers are "regulars" you not only travel with us frequently, but also bring with them new customers into our business.

The hunting travel market has never been as chaotic as it is at present. There have always been a mass of small and medium sized agencies trading on the market, but in recent years the rise of the internet has really opened up the market for direct booking and packages sold by "agents" of more or less transparent character and by agencies based abroad.

A large number of hunters have had their fingers burnt booking "cheap" packages, which rarely proceed as promised. Generally it is only when things go wrong that the unfortunate hunter who bought the tour first realises what the difference between a good Danish travel agency - with all the security that entails - and a questionable foreign seller, really is.

What we offer our customers is a rather unique level of security. Our experienced staff really know our destinations and can provide highly qualified advice tailored to the customer's individual requirements. If you book your hunting tour through us you also have a guarantee against the unlikely event of bankruptcy through the Danish Travel Guarantee Fund. Our long standing membership of the Danish Travel Agency Association is also a guarantee for professional service throughout all the proceedings that a hunting tour entails - also in the event of something not going quite as planned. As one of our customers you can expect around the clock support, via our emergency hotline, in the event of anything at all going wrong.
