HIGHLIGHTS & DESCRIPTION
Woodcock and Snipe Hunt

Overview

It is important to remember that all birds are wild, so we can not guarantee how many birds you will see.

However the estate can give a good estimate of how many birds you are likely to see. As long as there isn’t a hard frost, 4 shooters should bag between 8 - 18 woodcock per day, averaging 1 bird per six shots taken.

Of course this very much depends on the shooting skills of the individual hunters!

Woodcock are a very exciting quarry, either flying very low or so high that they are almost out of range. The hunting terrain is very varied, with typical Irish hills and bogs.

The excellent shooting for woodcock/snipe is one of Colebrooke’s great attractions. Group size can be up to 4 shooters.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Very varied hunting terrain with typical Irish hills and bogs
- Hunting form is walking-up
- Exciting shooting for snipe and woodcock
- The number of birds shot is dependent on the skills of the hunter

When you take part in a sika hunt you will be the guests of Lord and Lady Brookeborough and stay in the estate’s large handsome, but at the same time cozy, manor house. The house was built during the 18th and 19th centuries, and Lady Brookeborough, who was once a representative of Sotheby’s has furnished the many lovely rooms with beautiful antiques. Amongst the more than 60 rooms in the house it is in the library and the billiards room where you will spend most of your time in the evening after a long day hunting. The exquisitely prepared meals are served in the beautiful finding room.

There are 10 double- and 3 single rooms available for guests, all tastefully furnished.

As an alternative to the main house, Alan has just renovated a number of the houses that form part of the Colebrooke Park estate. These attractive houses have all been tastefully furnished. Accommodation in them is on a self-catering basis.

In connection with the woodcock shoots hunters can also choose to stay in a charming guesthouse situated in beautiful countryside. Accommodation here includes breakfast and dinner, Guest usually stay in a shared twin room, with a private bathroom and toilet.

Our partnership with Alan Brookeborough goes back for many years and is totally unique. To visit Alan Brookeborough on his large estate in Northern Ireland is a really special experience!

All our groups of hunters who have visited Colebrooke Park, have enjoyed excellent hunting and a level of service that is far above average. We might even dare to suggest that is a “must” to visit Colebrooke Park. To be a guest on this large and beautiful estate, with all it’s long history, is a great experience. Alan is a very passionate hunter himself, and the conversations with him over dinner in the evening after a good, exciting day’s hunting are really special.

At Colebrooke Park, Alan Brookeborough arranges both hunting for sika stags and shooting for woodcock. The woodcock shoots are very attractive and sell-out quickly, so it is a good idea to book well in advance if you want to enjoy this great hunting experience.

Alan is married to Janet who prepares the most wonderful food for our hunters. Fresh raw ingredients are used to make varied and well prepared meals.
The hunt take place in Colebrooke Park itself, and even though the hunt is in open countryside, the population of sika stags is so dense that all our hunters over the last many years have bagged a good sika stag, many of which have been medal winners. The hunt is carried out as a combination of lying in wait and stalking. Partly because there are many natural vantage points in the hilly landscape and partly because there are a number of “high seats”.

In addition to Colebrooke there are also 4 other very interesting districts that lies in the vicinity of Colebrooke Park. Depending on the wishes of the hunter, it is possible to combine the sika hunt with hunting for fallow buck, red stags and wild goat. The fallow buck here are not in the medal winning class, but there is a real chance of shooting a good fallow buck with a fully palmated trophy.

The red stag hunts take place on the nearby estate of Seaforde - around a 1 1/2 hour drive from Colebrooke Park, and the stags here are of excellent quality. The best stags shot during the last 4 years have produced trophies of between 7.9 and 10.6kg. If you wish to hunt for red stags please book in advance.

Limpopo Travel and Diana Hunting Tours – which today are one and the same company - are built on more than four decades of experience in the hunting travel industry. Diana Hunting tours was founded in Svendborg back in 1974 by the internationally known figure in the hunting tour industry, Jan Krossteig, who today remains shareholder and chairman of the concern.

Over the years the company has grown into the world’s largest hunting travel office, with hunting partners in more than 40 counties and customers from around the world. This has only been possible because of the strength of our customers faith in our company, our partners and the service we provide. We take great pride in the fact that a significant number of our customers are “regulars” you not only travel with us frequently, but also bring with them new customers into our business.

The hunting travel market has never been as chaotic as it is at present. There have always been a mass of small- and medium sized agencies trading on the market, but in recent years the rise of the internet has really opened up the market for direct booking and packages sold by “agents” of more or less transparent character and by agencies based abroad. A large number of hunters have had their fingers burnt booking “cheap” packages, which rarely proceed as promised. Generally it is only when things go wrong that the unfortunate hunter who bought the tour first realises what the difference between a good Danish travel agency - with all the security that entails - and a questionable foreign seller, really is.

What we offer our customers is a rather unique level of security. Our experienced staff really know our destinations and can provide highly qualified advice tailored to the customer’s individual requirements. If you book your hunting tour through us you also have a guarantee against the unlikely event of bankruptcy through the Danish Travel Guarantee Fund. Our long standing membership of the Danish Travel Agency Association is also a guarantee for professional service throughout all the proceedings that a hunting tour entails - also in the event of something not going quite as planned. As one of our customers you can expect around the clock support, via our emergency hotline, in the event of anything at all going wrong.
